

CALIFORNIA
SELECTION/REJECTION OF UNINSURED MOTORISTS BODILY INJURY INSURANCE

The California Insurance Code requires an insurer to provide Uninsured Motorists bodily injury coverage in each Bodily Injury Liability insurance policy it issues covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle. Such section also permits the insurer and the applicant to delete such coverage completely or to delete such coverage when a motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name, or agree to provide such coverage in an amount less than that required by subdivision (m) of Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code, but not less than the financial responsibility requirements. Uninsured Motorists bodily injury coverage insures the insured, his heirs, or legal representatives for all sums within the limits established by law, which such person or persons are legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury, including any resulting sickness, disease, or death, to him from the owner or operator of an Uninsured Motor vehicle not owned or operated by the insured. It also includes Underinsured Motorists bodily injury coverage which protects the insured up to policy limits if involved in an accident caused by another person who carries Bodily Injury limits which are insufficient to pay for the insured 's injuries or injuries to the occupants of the insured's vehicle.

With respect to Uninsured Motorists bodily injury coverage:

I have had Uninsured Motorists Bodily Injury Coverage and the available options explained to me, and understand that its limits are available up to my bodily injury liability limits but need not be available in excess of $100,000/$300,000. I also understand that this coverage may be rejected entirely.

Furthermore, I have had uninsured motorists property damage coverage and the available options explained to me, and understand that this coverage does not apply unless I have selected a deductible option and a premium appears for the applicable vehicle.

- I elect to purchase limits in an amount less than $30,000 each person $60,000 each accident.
- I reject Uninsured Motorists Bodily Injury coverage in its entirety.
