

- Persons or organizations that conduct scientific research, including actuarial or underwriting studies, provided that no individual may be identified in the studies
- An insurance support organization, including consumer reporting agencies
- Another insurer in order to prevent or prosecute fraud

Also, on rare occasions, we may be required to share this information:

- With a State Insurance Department or other governmental agency, if required by federal, state or local laws
- If ordered by a summons, court order, search warrant or subpoena
- To protect our own legal interests, or in case of suspected fraud or other illegal activities.

HOW TO FIND OUT WHAT INFORMATION WE HAVE ABOUT YOU

If you have any questions about what we have in your file please write to us. When we receive your written request, we will respond within thirty (30) business days. We will let you know if we've given any information about you to anyone in the past. If we asked for a consumer report we will tell you the name and address of the consumer reporting agency.

You may also see and copy your file (except for certain documents about claims and lawsuits). If you believe any of our information is wrong we'll check it out and if we agree there was an error, we'll correct it. If we don't agree, you're still allowed to file a letter with your comments. We'll send the correction or letter to anyone who received or will receive the original information.

If you have any questions about the right of access to or correction of your file, we'll be happy to review our procedures with you. Please contact:
